

Reading Together Programme

For 3 consecutive Tuesday mornings, we have offered and presented our Reading Together Programme to some of the parents/grandparents/caregivers of our emergent reader. The purpose of the workshops was:

To equip parents/grandparents/caregivers with the necessary skills to support their children towards being successful readers; and for reading to be an exciting and enjoyable time for children and parents/grandparents/caregivers.

Some of the feedback from programme participants was:

It has reignited a love/interest for reading in our whole family.

It has been interesting and informative, finding out different strategies to deal with problems that might crop up.

I really enjoyed this reading group. It has given me helpful tips to help and encourage my child's reading, and confidence.

I realise how important a peaceful and calm environment is to get the

I am now more aware of how it feels to be a beginner reader and to have to learn to read

Thank you for the invitation to do the programme. It has been really helpful and I am now more patient!

We had many laughs and the teachers were excellent at role-playing.

Our relationship has improved and reading time is more fun. We are spending more time together as a family.

A big thank you to all the parents/grandparents/caregivers who attended this important programme. We will be offering it again in 2016, and anyone who is interested, is welcome to join us.
